

The Department of Communication announces the Final Ph.D. Oral Examination

[Insert Candidate Name]

[Insert Dissertation Title]

[Insert Name], Advisor

Time
Date
Location

By UM Graduate School Regulation, Ph.D. final orals are open to members of the campus community and begin with an opportunity for the candidate to present the conclusions of his/her research and respond to questions from those in attendance. After this initial opportunity, the exam remains open but only the members of the Dissertation Examining Committee are permitted to question the candidate. Deliberations of the Committee are closed to all but Committee members. Please notify the advisor of intent to attend the examination.